Your own internet express lane

When we say dedicated, we mean it. You don't share your connection with other businesses so you get all the bandwidth. Our industry-leading performance, reliability, and security will give you the edge you need. With AT&T Dedicated Internet, you get 100% of the speed you purchase, 100% of the time.² With AT&T Dynamic Defense, it's the only dedicated internet service with comprehensive built-in security controls, including threat detection and response.⁴
