Manage employee travel risks with Business Messaging

To get started, contact 888.318.1620

Events such as natural disasters, protests, and economical disturbances can put employees in harm’s way. Having a reliable communications tool in place is vital to staying in contact with employees during these times. Get Business Messaging from AT&T.

Did you know?
In 2017, Hurricane Harvey disrupted 17 emergency call centers and 320 cellular sites, putting employees at risk.
Source: FCC

A secure, simple, seamless way to communicate with your teams
• Mass corporate emergency alerts
• Safety confirmation
• Travel rebooking
• Weather updates
• ‘Areas to avoid’ notifications

Key benefits of Business Messaging:
• Delivers emergency notifications, regardless of U.S. carrier, with the highest priority and without risk of being blocked by spam filters.
• Enables location sharing to better confirm employee safety.
• Archives and stores employee responses for audit purposes.
• Offers unsurpassed network reliability during times of crisis.
Product features

• Encrypted messages and file attachments while at rest, in transit, and on the mobile device.
• Smaller work groups or company-wide broadcasted messages.
• Chat functionality for up to 20,000 contacts.
• Message history storage.
• File, photo, voice memo and video attachments up to 5 MB.
• Sent, delivered, and read confirmations.
• Up to 100 custom group distribution lists.
• Private or public distribution lists.
• Location and contact sharing.
• Push notifications for near-real-time updates.
• Apps for Android and iOS handsets and tablets.

Additional security features

• Security: TLS encrypted data channel
• Message content security: AES – 256 encrypted unique keys for each message
• Secure key management: RSA 2048-bit encrypted keys provide asymmetric encryption with unique keys for each device
  4-digit PIN is required for mobile app access
• Remote wipe: Remotely wipe IP conversations
• Message expiration: Delete IP messages after pre-defined period of time
• Prohibit copy/paste: Cannot copy or paste to or from the app