AT&T Office@Hand is a cloud-based phone system service that provides enterprise-grade voice, fax, instant messaging, video meetings, conferencing, contact center services and more to your mobile and branch office employees, without a costly phone system to buy, install and maintain.

To learn more about this special offer, contact your sales representative or call 877-219-3898.

Qualifying customers will receive a credit for up to 50 users and $148.99 per Yealink device ordered up to 50 devices. Devices must be equal or less than total number of licenses ordered. Additional devices can be purchased for list price. Credits do not apply to E911, applicable taxes, surcharges or shipping. This promotion applies only to new customers for AT&T Office@Hand who sign a minimum two year agreement for 1-50 seats with standard pricing only. Customer must complete the White Glove implementation process with an AT&T Office@Hand advisor (three sessions). Customer must have paid three bills to be eligible for credit. Once customer has met all requirements, it may take a few billing cycles for credits to apply. Early termination or reduction of seat counts will result in customer repaying credits and any applicable early termination fees.
