Introduction

When it comes to the IT ecosystem, businesses often overlook complimentary mobility solutions. It's common practice to manage company-owned mobile phones together with laptops, applying the same management protocols to both. But mobile devices follow their own lifecycle and have a unique set of requirements.

AT&T Consulting delivers comprehensive optimization for your mobile ecosystem, helping to ensure seamless performance and enhanced security. With our expert support handling your mobile strategy, you can confidently focus on driving growth and excelling in your core business.

Business challenges

As mobility experts, we know the challenges you face:

- Device lifecycle management
- Complex mobile environment involving multiple cellular carriers, diverse device types, various Mobile Device Management (MDM) platforms, or internal departments with unique requirements
- Lack of mobility expertise or resources
- Difficulty defining mobile security configurations and policies
- Trouble defining or developing a long-term mobility strategy

We're with you every step of the way

Phases of work and pricing

AT&T Consulting can help you identify your mobility challenges and overcome the gaps. We recommend a phased approach to evolve your mobility program. It may include discovery, implementation, and lifecycle management.

We customize our services to your needs. Pricing varies based on the complexity, size of mobile environment, and project scope. This table shows project phases and typical costs.

AT&T Consulting Mobility Offering	Price ¹	Details
Discovery (assessment)	$35,000 – $55,000	Assess your current state, determine requirements, conduct a gap analysis, and provide recommendations.
Discovery (Fast Start)	$15,000 – $30,000/mo.	Provide expertise to complete short-term mobility initiatives and conduct an assessment on current state. Identify ways to improve.
Implementation	Variable	Plan and implement key strategic mobility initiatives. Examples: MDM implementation/migration, hardware process improvement, and deployment of mobile compliance practices.
Management	Variable	Manage any part of customer mobile ecosystem. Devices, cellular plans, MDM platform, processes, security, vendors, and more.

¹Plus taxes and other charges

We offer a consultation at no charge to discuss customer needs and goals. If applicable, we can convert these findings and customer goals into a Project Concept Document (PCD).
