

Installment Financing Options for Qualified Equipment

Last Revised 12/06/19

1. General. As further described below, Customer may purchase select Equipment for its CRUs using one or more available installment plan options (each, an Installment Option), all of which are subject to change and/or discontinuation at any time in AT&T's sole discretion: (a) AT&T Installment Plan and AT&T Installment Plan with Next UpSM (for use with smartphone purchases only); (b) Equipment Installment Plan (for use with smartphone, feature phone, tablet and certain other qualified Equipment purchases for CRU lines only); and (c) any other device and/or accessory installment plan option that may be offered by AT&T from time to time.

2. CRU Term. Equipment purchased using an Installment Option does not have a CRU Term; however, activation of the Equipment with qualified Service is required. In addition, Equipment purchased through an Installment Option cannot be combined with any Equipment Discount set forth in the Agreement.

3. Equipment Financing Conditions. Customer's eligibility for each Equipment purchase, as well as the maximum number of devices that Customer may finance at one time, is subject to credit approval and/or applicable Installment Option restrictions.

4. Installment Agreement. For each Equipment purchase under an Installment Option, Customer's authorized representative making such purchase (e.g., an authorized order placer) is required to sign, on behalf of Customer, a Credit Sale Contract/Retail Installment Contract/Retail Installment Obligation/Retail Installment Sale Agreement (Installment Agreement) in form and substance substantially found at <https://www.att.com/legal/terms.deviceInstallmentPlan.html>, as may be modified by AT&T from time to time. Customer will be subject to the applicable Installment Agreement(s) and associated credit approval and other policies and processes established by AT&T for such Installment Option purchase(s), as may be modified from time to time.
