It's easy to work together to actively protect our communities

Rave EyeWitness from AT&T

Keeping your citizens informed is customer and constituent service. When citizens keep their government informed it's collaboration. With Rave EyeWitness from AT&T, it's easier than ever to work together to actively safeguard and protect our communities. EyeWitness allows citizens to text anonymous tips or alerts to authorities for informational purposes or to report serious public safety incidents.

EyeWitness is quick, easy and discreet

Text messaging is quick and easy. Giving citizens a way to correspond via their favorite medium makes it easier to communicate with officials. Most tipsters don't want to risk retribution in order to report a sensitive or potentially dangerous event. With EyeWitness, tipsters can anonymously communicate with authorities without letting those in the vicinity know what's happening.

EyeWitness is a lifeline for citizens who witness crimes or want to report incidents that may be dangerous for other community members.

EyeWitness can also be integrated with the messaging system Rave Messenger from AT&T. Together these applications offer greater collaboration and promote safer communities.

Use cases include

- Littering or poaching
- Bullying
- Vandalism or criminal activity
- Road conditions
- Downed trees, power lines or weather-related events

Potential Benefits

- Rave EyeWitness can offer a strong deterrent to criminals when reporting suspicious behavior is quick and easy
- Confidentiality in reporting illegal activity allows tipsters anonymity so that citizens don't withhold timely, critical information due to a hesitancy of engaging with the authorities
- A user-friendly interface and configurable set up tools allow tip lines for neighborhood watch to be set up to engage the citizens to serve as the eyes and ears of the community

Features

- Through a highly-configurable console, Rave EyeWitness gives law enforcement agencies and other organizations the ability to receive crime tips or general concerns from the public
- The system allows for a two-way messaging capability between the reporter and law enforcement while still allowing the reporter to remain anonymous
- Tipsters can also include photographs with their message, greatly enhancing law enforcement's ability to address the problem quickly and effectively
