NOTICE OF ALTERNATIVE PER CALL COMPENSATION AGREEMENTS

On November 8, 2004 the FCC issued a Public Notice reminding Completing Carriers of their obligation to provide timely notification to PSPs of their chosen method of compensation. The completing carrier may either pay the PSP directly or enter into a contract to pay compensation by way of an alternative method. This information serves as notice of such arrangements.

By mutual agreement, toll free (8YY) calls eligible for per call compensation that originate in the SBC Companies'[1] territory and terminate in the territories of the companies listed below will be paid for by the SBC Companies. Conversely, toll free (8YY) calls originating in the territories of the companies listed below and terminating in the SBC Companies' territory will be paid for by those companies.
